STANDARDS COMMITTEE

REPORT OF THE HEAD OF LEGAL AND DEMOCRATIC SERVICES – MR CRAIG GRIFFITHS

14th October 2024

Matter for Information

Wards Affected: All Wards

Group Leaders of Neath Port Talbot County Borough Council

Purpose of the Report:

1. To discharge the legal obligation on Standards Committees to ensure leaders of political groups take steps to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by members of their groups and agree methods of monitoring.

Background:

Duty on Group Leaders

2. The Local Government and Elections (Wales) Act 2021 (“the Act”) included some new obligations for Standards Committees. The Act imposes specific duties on political leaders to promote and maintain standards of conduct within members of their group, and to cooperate with the Standards Committee in the exercise of its functions. This requires leaders of political groups to take steps to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by members of their groups.
3. The duty does not make leaders of a political group accountable for the behaviour of their members as conduct must be a matter of individual responsibility. However, they do have a role in taking reasonable steps in maintaining standards, setting an example, using their influence to promote a positive culture, being proactive in promoting high standards of conduct in their group and addressing issues as soon as they arise.

4. Reasonable steps the group leader may undertake include:
 - a. demonstrating personal commitment to and attending relevant development or training around equalities and standards;
 - b. encouraging group members to attend relevant development or training around equalities and standards;
 - c. ensuring nominees to a committee have received the recommended training for that committee;
 - d. promoting civility and respect within group communications and meetings and in formal council meetings;
 - e. promoting informal resolution procedures in the council, and working with the standards committee and monitoring officers to achieve local resolution;
 - f. promoting a culture within the group which supports high standards of conduct and integrity;
 - g. attend a meeting of the council's standards committee if requested to discuss Code of Conduct issues;
 - h. work to implement any recommendations from the Standards Committee about improving standards;
 - i. work together with other Group Leaders, within reason, to collectively support high standards of conduct within the council.
5. The purpose of the new duties is to build on and support a culture which is proactive, acts on and does not tolerate inappropriate behaviour.
6. A leader of a political group who fails to comply with the new duty in a meaningful way, may potentially be regarded as bringing their office into disrepute, and likely to be in breach of the Code.
7. A political group's internal disciplinary procedures remain a matter for that group or any associated political party's own rules on discipline. However, it is expected that the group leader will take reasonable steps to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by members within group communications and meetings as well as their 'public' conduct outside of the group setting.

8. The provision imposes an additional function on the Standards committee to monitor political leaders' compliance, and to advise, train or arranging to train leaders of political groups about matters relating to the above duties. It is essential the leaders of a political group co-operate, and ensure the members within their group co-operate, with the monitoring officer and standards committee when an issue is referred to the standards committee.
9. Leaders of a political group should build good relations, and work constructively with the monitoring officer, seeking advice from them and the standards committee on matters of behaviour and conduct when required, both promoting positive behaviours and addressing inappropriate ones. Group Leaders should also report compliance with their duty to the standards committee. This can take the form of a short letter or report at a frequency agreed by the political Group Leaders in the council and its standards committee. Group Leaders should also report any serious concerns about members' behaviour which have not been remedied by informal actions, in line with the requirement in the Code for councillors to report breaches.

Role of Standards Committee

10. The functions of the Standards Committee include monitoring compliance by leaders of political groups with the new duty imposed on them to promote and maintain high standards of conduct by members of their group. A council's political Group Leaders and its standards committee should agree on the form and frequency of a report from each group leader to the standards committee to demonstrate how compliance with the duty is achieved. The standards committee should then consider each report and provide feedback to the Group Leaders. A standards committee must also provide advice and training, or arrange to train Group Leaders on the new duty. The Standards Committee may wish to meet with Group Leaders periodically to review behaviour.
11. In the last year, the Standards Committee has met with all Group Leaders to discuss compliance with this duty and received reports from them at their meeting of the 23rd April 2024 – copies of which are enclosed at Appendix 1.

12. It is recommended that at the beginning of each council year political group leaders should meet with the standards committee to agree the following:
- to reflect on any particular challenges within the last year and how they were overcome
 - how group leaders and the standards committee will work together to ensure appropriate standards of behaviour and what assistance would group leaders require from the Standards Committee
 - to agree a frequency of meetings between group leaders and the standards committee throughout the year – it is currently proposed that there be one meeting at the start of the year and those present can confirm whether this is an acceptable frequency
 - the mechanism for political group leaders to provide reports to the standards committee about the actions they have taken to comply with the duties within the 2021 Act and whether there is a wish to update the current templates.
13. The following group leaders will attend the meeting of the 14th October 2024.
- Cllr Steve Hunt
 - Cllr Alun Llewelyn
 - Cllr Rob Jones
 - Cllr Helen Ceri Clarke
