Report of the Head of Participation - C. Millis

Matter for Information

Wards Affected: ALL Wards

Neath Port Talbot Local Authority Education Development Service

Purpose of the Report

1. To inform Members of the Education Delivery Plan by the Education Improvement Team

Executive Summary

2. To give Members an overview of the key priorities provided by Education Development Service and how it aligns with Regional (ERW) Business Plan.

Background

3. The Education Delivery Plan aligns with the priorities of the regional Education priorities. The three priorities include the main work stream priorities for the Challenge Advisers, Minority Ethnic and Achievement Service (MEAS), Gypsy Traveller Service, Looked After Children Education Service (LACES) and the 14-19 service.

4. The Education Development Service plan highlights the data in the main areas for each key stage in Neath Port Talbot School. It analyses and evaluates the performance of schools in the authority and lists the milestones and actions which will be undertaken during the coming year in order to improve each of the priorities.
