Recent decision of the Adjudication Panel for Wales relating to Members Code of Conduct Breaches

Purpose of the Report

1. To draw to Members attention a recent decision of the Adjudication Panel for Wales as the subject matter of this reports falls within the remit of the Standards Committee.

Background

2. The Adjudication Panel for Wales is an independent body which deals with the more serious breaches of the Code of Conduct referred to it by the Ombudsman and also appeals against decisions of standards committees.
3. On the 10th August 2018 the Panel issued its decision in the case of former County Councillor (now community councillor) Mr Graham Down from Monmouthshire.
4. This was a case referred to the Panel by the Ombudsman who alleged that Councillor Down had breached the Code by failing to show respect and consideration for others by making a series of homophobic statements in emails to the Chief Executive of the County Council.
5. The Panel considered the content of Five emails sent by Councillor Down between the 12th February 2016 and 13th October 2016 and found that in the case of 3 of the emails although his comments were 'disrespectful' they did not amount to a breach of the Code due to the enhanced protection that exists for political expression under the European Convention on Human Rights (ECHR) and therefore the Human Rights Act.

6. However in the other 2 cases the Panel found that the comments were so offensive that despite the protections afforded to Councillor Downs under Articles 9 (Freedom of thought, conscience and religion) and 10 (freedom of expression) of the ECHR it was still necessary to take action for the protection of the rights and interests of others.
7. The Panel took into account a variety of factors when considering what sanction to impose, identifying in Councillor Down's conduct a number of mitigating and aggravating factors (the latter including his failure to attend code training).
8. Taking into account these factors and decisions made in other similar cases the Panel decided to impose a 2 month period of suspension upon Councillor Downs
9. A copy of the Adjudication Panel for Wales' decision is attached at Appendix 1 for information.
10. The decision, although not setting out in full detail the allegations against Mr Down, provides useful guidance on the interpretation of key parts of the Code.
11. The reason for bringing it to Members attention today is that it provides some useful guidance with some practical examples on how the Adjudication Panel for Wales feels the Members Code of Conduct maybe breached and the possible consequences this might have.
