A full impact assessment (second stage) is not required	X
Reasons for this conclusion

Based on the above assessment, a full impact assessment is not required as the initiative has low or no impact on the majority of factors indicated. In the few cases where impact has been identified this is positive, improving outcomes for children and young people's development and wellbeing.

The Children and Young People's Plan development has been based on significant engagement and consultation with a wide range of stakeholders, including children, young people and families. This has informed the strategic priorities and actions within the document.

Positive impacts are also anticipated with opportunities to use and promote the Welsh language through direct links with the WESP, Childcare Sufficiency Assessment and Curriculum for Wales implementation.

A full impact assessment (second stage) is required
